Classic Monograde 50

Description

Classic Monograde 50 is a mineral, single-grade SAE 50 motor oil specially designed for classic petrol and diesel engines. Carefully selected additives provide the product with the following properties:

- Outstanding lubrication properties
- Superb protection against wear
- Effective protection against corrosion
- Does not cause caked-on dirt to become detached
- Excellent resistance to foaming
- Fully compatible with classic seals and rubbers

Application

Classic Monograde 50 is a mineral motor oil for classic combustion engines: modern motor oils can have a disastrous effect on such engines. In order to lubricate precious and often valuable classic cars safely, Kroon-Oil has developed its Classic Oils. This is a complete range that has been specially developed for use in classic vehicles. Classic Monograde 50 is suitable for post-war classic petrol and diesel engines that require a lightly to moderately enhanced single-grade motor oil.
