Scoogear 75W-90

Description

Scoogear 75W-90 is an extremely modern, synthetic transmission oil specially developed for scooters. By using low-viscosity, synthetic base oils combined with advanced additives, the following properties are achieved:

- Good 'Extreme Pressure' properties provide extra protection against wear
- Excellent resistance to high operating temperatures, which ensures a longer service life of the oil
- Ensures outstanding gear-changing, even at extremely high or low temperatures
- Prevents foaming

Application

Scoogear 75W-90 has been specially developed for optimal use in most heavy-duty transmissions in the current generation of scooters.
